Jack and Annie are on a mission to find—and inspire—a musician that brings happiness to millions of people, in this camp based on the popular children's book series by Mary Pope Osborne. After traveling to New Orleans, Jack and Annie come head to head with some real ghosts, and discover the world of jazz when they meet a young Louis Armstrong.

ABOUT US

At Orlando Shakes our camps are taught by theater professionals and are designed to ignite imagination and inspire creativity while teaching life skills.

Campers are introduced to basic vocal and performance techniques. Students will learn the Actor's toolbox through age-appropriate theater exercises and games and create crafts themed to the camp. All camps will culminate with either a "shareformance" or full performance for family and friends.

Most camps are limited to a maximum of 16 students. Camps should be selected by the grade your child will enter in August 2019.

MORNING AND AFTER CARE

If your child is age 4 through 8th grade, early drop-off and extended care options are available. For an added fee, your camper can arrive at Orlando Shakes as early as 7:30 am and stay as late as 5:30 pm. Parents must register for the entire week. Extended Care includes outside play, crafts, games, and movies in a safe, supervised environment.

ALL GRADES

Morning Care = $55/week ($45/week of July 4)
After Care = $55/week ($45/week of July 4)
Both = $90/week ($80/week of July 4)
